

JIM HOULIHAN GETS HONORED FROM THE WESTCHESTER COUNTY PARKS DEPARTMENT

James J. Houlihan of Houlihan-Parnes Realtors, was honored as the recipient of Westchester County Parks 2010 Best Friends Award. The event honored Mr. Houlihan, among others, for his support of the Westchester County Park Department, took place on Wednesday, April 14th at the Glen Island Harbour Club in New Rochelle, NY.

James J. Houlihan received the top honor for his work as Chairman of the Great Hunger Memorial Committee of Westchester County. The committee raised funds to erect a memorial at Westchester County's VE Macy's Park in Ardsley to commemorate the Great Hunger in Ireland (1845-1851). Mr. Houlihan was also the Chairman in the fund-raising efforts for the "Rising", Westchester County's September 11th memorial at Kensico Damn Plaza in Valhalla. In 2004, Mr. Houlihan received the first-ever Chairman's Medal of Gratitude from the Westchester County Board of Legislators for his work on The Rising. He also served on the Westchester County Parks Department for five years and on the board of trustees of the Friends of Westchester County Parks for six years.
